RESPONSE TO EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

MS Issue Fee
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450

The Notice of Allowability mailed January 23, 2006 states at page 2, paragraph 1, "[T]he prior art of record, alone or in combination, does not teach temporarily saving voice data representing an entire conversation in a buffer, then instructing by a user, during the conversation session, to store the temporarily saved voice data in a storage server combined with other limitations."

Applicant respectfully submits that the claims do not require the storing of the "entire" conversation, but rather only require storing voice data representing the voice session. It is conceivable that this would be less than the "entire" conversation.

Respectfully submitted,

KIRK BARKER ET AL.
